

NIFTY VIEW

The Nifty finished the Nov F&O series about four percent. Nifty went through a rollercoaster ride on the settlement day of November series FNO contracts as sentiments turned highly volatile in the second half of the session. After getting a cautious but positive start, nifty showed some strength in morning trades, but the sentiments turned pessimistic in late morning trades as investors and foreign funds adopted a cautious approach, ahead of the release of July-September economic growth data on Friday and the RBI policy review on Tuesday. Also, there was cautiousness with the OPEC's crucial meet scheduled today, to decide on whether the group members will go for a production cut or not, impacting the global crude prices. Market, for rest of the session, seesawed around the neutral line as investors remained on the sidelines in the absence of any significant trigger at domestic front. However, some value buying in dying hours helped market to end the session in the green. Global credit rating agency Moody's statement that FDI inflows into the country will continue in the coming quarters of fiscal 2015 and beyond also provided some strength to local benchmark. Some support also came in from reports that FPIs bought shares worth a net Rs 181.46 cr. on November 26, 2014. Besides, covering-up of pending short positions by speculators on the last day of November series expiry in the derivatives segment also influenced sentiment.

TREND: Trend is up and can turn down if close will below 8448.00

Nifty continuously trading with support of its DRV as shown in chart, yesterday also it made low near to its DRV which stood at 8448 and bounce back which is good sign but on the other hand, on weekly chart Nifty has been forming doji candle which is indecisive candle so one has to wait for today's weekly close for further direction indication for next week. At this level Trader should not make new position in buy side until and unless it doesn't give close above 8540 level and if have then could wait with SL of 8448 on closing basis. Downside Nifty has support at 8448-8378-8290.

Nifty likely to open positive following on global cues.

FOR PURELY INTRA-DAY TRADERS: If Fut. Nifty Trades above open and 8565 then expect a rise towards 8595-8605 Traders can trade long with stop loss of 8545. If Nifty Trades below open and 8530 then expect a decline towards 8500-8485 to be tested. For Short Trade the stop loss can be 8545.
